It is for the airlines to provide air services to specific places including Bilaspur depending upon the traffic demand and commercial viability subject to compliance of route disperal guidelines issued by Government.

Reduction in interest rates on Small Savings

190. SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the National Federation of Postal Employees' Union had protested on January 6, 1999, against Government' decision to reduce the rates of interest for all the schemes of small savings, including term deposits and Indira Vikas and Krishi Vikas Patras;

(b) if so, the details of their protest and Government's reaction and response thereto; and

(c) the total estimated annual collections through such small savings; and how far these savings are likely to be diverted to her unwholesome avenues like chit funds, mutual funds and lotteries?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI YASHWANT SINHA): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) the total estimated net collections of small savings including Public Provident Fund during 1998-99 are Rs. 29000 crore. Small savings schemes continue to carry attractive returns, substantial tax benefits, easy liquidity terms and Government of India guarantee. Therefore, investor confidence will continue in small saving schemes and diversion to other avenues is not expected.
